

I certinly do not want to receive calls over and over again in the evening or have a bunch of messages from telemarketers on my answering machine every day. I enjoy my evenings without disturbances from these companies. I fully support wisconsin's do not call list law, and do not want to see the Federal government take it away.